A Flute solo with Piano Accompaniment composed by Franz Joseph Haydn.

The keyboard music of such composers as Haydn, Mozart, and Beethoven is among the most popular ever written, yet surprisingly little is known about the instruments for which it was composed. This book fills that gap. Based on new evidence from surviving instruments and many contemporary newspaper advertisements, it traces the history and development of Viennese harpsichords, clavichords, and pianos in the eighteenth century, and their use by composers and performers of the time.
